Disney Day Delights

Monday's special theme was Disney Character Day. Some campers came to camp dressed as their favorite characters; others sang songs with Alyssa; still others made costumes in Arts and Crafts. The Busy Bees all created Mickey Mouse masks (see photo below). Participation in our theme days is a great way to build camp spirit and I suggest that everyone comes in costume this Wednesday... all your counselors will, too!

Upcoming Events

- Wednesday is Hallopu-*rim in July... we will be dressing in costume and having special events throughout the day.
- This coming Friday will be our first ever Mad Science Show for all campers. These zany scientists will teach our campers through fun experiments.
- The August calendar of special events can be found on the reverse side of this newsletter (or as a second page online).

Not a Crime Scene

Our younger campers love drawing on the volleyball court with colored chalk. They seem to have mastered the "art" of tracing their counselors... don't worry... move along... no crime scene here! Speaking of art, I hope everyone got a chance to see our fantastic Camper Art Exhibit at Friday's talent show. If you didn't, please stop by the Casino to ooh and ahh over these masterpieces.

A Talented Bunch

Friday's talent show was a great success, thanks to the campers, counselors, and drama specialist Alyssa. Each group performed a song and dance on our deluxe stage in front of the whole bungalow colony. Groups 1 and 2 performed Hands Up and The Chicken Dance, Group 3 performed Gangnam Style, Groups 4 and 6 ("The Pink Girls") performed Put Your Hearts Up, Group 5 danced to Dance with me Tonight, and Group 7 performed Troublemakers, their title song!

FINAL PLEA

- Do NOT take your children out of camp without my knowledge. This will no longer be tolerated. We will be forced to withdraw your children for the rest of the camp season.
- Words cannot describe how disruptive it is to the camp program when half the group leaves before the end of the day. We cannot finish activities, clean up, distribute snack, or hand out important newsletters/permission slips.
